Prize Draw - 2.30pm in The Corn Exchange conducted by Royston's Mayor, Cllr. Peter Lill

- Chocolate characters will be displayed in the windows of 12 non-confectionery retailers on Saturday April 10th.
- Children will write the name of the shop displaying a numbered chocolate character against the corresponding number on the Entry Form.
- Free Entry Forms will be available in local newspapers and, on the day, from the 12 retailers displaying chocolate characters in their windows and also from the Town Centre Manager's office in The Corn Exchange, Market Hill.
- Only one entry per child, please!
- Completed Entry Forms need to be posted before 2.30pm in the container outside the Town Centre Manager's office, The Corn Exchange, Market Hill.
- The Mayor will draw winners at random out of the container.
- Prize winners not attending the draw will be notified by telephone.

Important

Children must be accompanied by an adult at all times.
Entry Forms can only be accepted from children under adult supervision.
